More Anti-Red Prisoners Sought By Koje Guards

399 Fearful POWs Refuse To Stay With Die-Hards; Kangaroo Court Sessions Deal Death Sentences

KOJE ISLAND, June 12—(AP)—U. S. troops hunted Thursday for missing comrades of 399 frightened anti-Communist prisoners of war who broke away from 4,800 marching Reds.

The breakaway came during an otherwise orderly evacuation of the fourth trouble-ridden POW enclosure at this United Nations prison camp.

The anti-Red POWs said the missing prisoners had been haled before Communist kangaroo courts before Thursday's transfer. They did not report the number.

Death at the hands of their die-hard leaders was the fate of 16 POWs missing from an enclosure erupted Wednesday.

Many of the 399 POWs who broke away plainly feared death at the hands of their Red leaders. Others who tried to escape were dragged by the Communists into compound 91, their new, temporary enclosure.

"NOW WE WILL live," one grateful North Korean soldier sighed.

Neutral Look At Koje Urged

Republicans Skeptical About Invitation

WASHINGTON, June 12—(AP)—A proposal to invite neutral military leaders to observe the treatment of Communist prisoners of war on strife-torn Koje Island is getting mixed reaction in Congress.

Some Democratic senators said it would help offset Communist propaganda about the "mistreatment" of Red prisoners.

But Republicans, if not hostile to the idea, expressed skepticism that it would prove effective.

President Truman suggested in a letter to Secretary of Defense Lovett Wednesday that military men from five neutral nations be asked to visit Korea to see at first hand how Communist prisoners are treated by United Nations forces.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee and a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, advanced the idea in a call at the White House two days ago.

A Visit to Koje Island by high-ranking neutral military observers, Russell suggested, would be a means of refuting "the mass of falsehoods which are being broadcast to the world by the Communist propaganda machine."

Truman forwarded Russell's memorandum to Lovett with the comment that the proposal had a lot of merit.

Sen. Bridges (R-Ill.) took the view that "we don't need representatives of other nations to go there and tell us if we are conducting the prison camps properly."

He added:

"The only trouble with American and UN supervision there is that they have been too lenient and have compromised their position."

Sen. Moody (D-Mich.) said he was glad "to see the American government taking more initiative for counteracting false propaganda."

A young woman who was graduated by Jeffersonville High School and found romance as a nurse at Grant Hospital in Columbus, today is preparing to settle down with her physician husband in Greenville, Ill.

Dr. and Mrs. Sedat Kayar at last are finished with laying the foundation for a medical profession and are now ready to minister to humanity for the first time since he entered medical school in Turkey and she nursing school in her native Ohio.

Mrs. Kayar is the former Anna Lee Houseman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houseman, who now live in Sabina. She and her daughter, Elisha Eileen, have been visiting the Housemans before going on to their new home.

Dr. Kayar is a former resident of Kocaeli, Turkey, and he started his medical schooling at the Istanbul Medical School. He came to America for more training at the University of Pennsylvania and later became the resident physician at Grant Hospital. That is where he and his bride met.

For the past two years, Dr. and Mrs. Kayar have been in Lima where he was on the staff of the Memorial Hospital and she was on the nursing staff part-time.

Former Pupils of Miss Conn Make Her Happy on Birthday

MISS AMY V. CONN'S JOY is apparent as she reads, almost caresses, the more than 250 birthday cards while surrounded by bouquets of flowers that came to her on her 84th birthday Wednesday.

Miss Amy V. Conn had a birthday Wednesday—her 84th—and while there was no party she was remembered by scores of her friends, most of whom had gone to school to her.

She spent the day sitting comfortably and happily in her home at 414 North North Street, surrounded by a bower of flowers while she read the more than 250 birthday greeting cards wishing her "many happy returns of the day."

The flowers, like the cards, came from old friends. There also were telephone calls and many personal visits and a few personal gifts, appropriate for the occasion. Her joy radiated from her twinkling eyes and the smile that seldom left her lips.

The guests did not start coming until afternoon, because Miss Conn rarely arises early nowadays. But after they started there was an almost steady stream until long after darkness had settled down.

OF ALL THE cards, the flowers and the visitors she singled out only one—an immense hybrid orchid that had been sent her by one of her former pupils, Bernard Smith, from Cleveland.

Miss Conn smiled happily as she said: "Just think! My first orchid after 84 years."

She had several invitations to go out for dinner, but had to decline them all because of her restricted diet.

She lives alone and does all of her own cooking and housekeeping in her apartment. Most of her time is spent reading—a natural thing to do after the 49 years she spent among books as a school teacher here before she retired in 1937.

Looking out the window at the bright and sunny day, Miss Conn remarked that "as long as I can

London Man Killed

COLUMBUS, June 12—(AP)—Roscoe Sanders, Jr., 22, of London, was injured fatally Thursday when his automobile struck a tree on Route 142 a mile east of his home. He died in a hospital here.

ed after he had safely fled.

The anti-Red POWs broke away in groups of up to 100 men. They tore off their Red star-decorated hats, trampled them in the dust and awaited the arrival of guards.

The camp commander, Brig. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, is expected to order evacuation of a fifth compound, No. 66, Friday. Some of the 2,700 ugly-tempered North Korean officers and 650 non-coms there are reported fashioning knives and spears.

Boatner met Thursday with their leaders, some of whom were shown the smoldering wreckage of Compound 76, the first to be emptied.

Thirty-nine prisoners died and at least 150 were injured there in a Tuesday battle with U. S. paratroopers. Many of the 39 were spared to death by fellow Reds.

Compound 66 is guarded by one company of the King's Shropshire light infantry of Britain, and one company of the Royal Canadian regiment. However, indications were the U. S. 38th Regiment would supervise the evacuation.

THE REMAINS of 16 savagely killed prisoners were dug up in the third emptied compound, No. 77. But so far soldiers found no bodies in the fourth, No. 95. Unlike 77, there were no homemade weapons or escape tunnels.

Transfer of POWs from No. 95 brought Operation Breakup to the 30 per cent mark. Boatner intends to wrest control of the 80,000 internees from their Red leaders by moving them to new, smaller compounds and splitting them into groups of about 500.

Some 24,400 have been moved. Thirteen compounds remain to be emptied and there is a chance of violence in some of them.

Intelligence officers found the Reds' documents burned. They surmised word of the transfer had come through the prison "grapevine." Leaders of compound 95 surrendered the bodies of eight prisoners killed in an April 10 clash with Allied guards.

The 4,800 Reds were herded temporarily into compound 91, where unarmed guards moved freely among them.

The 399 who broke away were taken for questioning to compound 61. Guards put with them two anti-Communists who scaled the barbed wire fence of 91.

Middletown Medic Is Cited By AMA

CHICAGO, June 12—(AP)—Dr. Walter H. Roehl of Middletown, O., was honored by the American Medical Association Wednesday for untiring medical care administered to passengers of a stalled Southern Pacific train last winter.

The House of Delegates adopted a resolution citing Dr. Roehl for his work during the several days the train was isolated in a snow drift near Dorser Pass in the Sierra Nevada Mountains.

Major Fire Hits Madison Cannery

COLUMBUS, June 12—(AP)—Fire of undetermined origin gutted the main processing plant of Stokely-Van Camp, Inc., cannery at West Jefferson in Madison County Wednesday night with estimated damage of $200,000.

Two smaller buildings at the plant were leveled and two corn storage silos were damaged. The cannery processed and packed sweet corn.

Taft-Backing Paper Says 6 Ohio Delegates May Tap Ike

CLEVELAND, June 12—(AP)—The Cleveland Plain Dealer reported Thursday that up to six of Sen. Robert A. Taft's 56 Ohio convention delegates are wavering.

The newspaper, which has announced its support of Taft for President, said the "deserters reportedly would not come out flatly" for Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Rather, it was said, they would announce prior to the Republican convention that "if Taft can't make it, then we will vote for Eisenhower." The story added:

"Political effect of such a declaration would be tantamount to an Eisenhower endorsement and of tremendous psychological importance to the five-star general, because it would indicate at a crucial time that the senator's firmest backers were wavering."

About a week ago, attention was called to Miss Conn's approaching birthday and the suggestion made that she would certainly appreciate cards from the hundreds of men and women who owe so much to her, her pupils in their school days.

The slayer, Donald Snyder, 25, of Canastota, N. Y., gave warning of his desperation and cried:

"If you come near me, I'll stab the child."

Alex Williams, 45, school bus driver and a special policeman, tried to persuade Snyder to release the child, Betty Lou Arnold. As he talked, he sidled up closer and fired, hitting Snyder. The convict then plunged the knife into the little girl's abdomen.

Williams fired two more shots, and Snyder gave up the fight.

Williams drove the school bus that brought Betty Lou home late Wednesday.

Reds Remain Unyielding On POW Trade

MUNSAN, June 12—(AP)—The chief Communist Korean truce negotiator softened his denunciation of the Allies Thursday, but remained unyielding on the prisoner exchange issue—last obstacle to an armistice.

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison, head UN negotiator, told newsmen he attached no significance to North Korean Gen. Nam Il's omission of any mention of the riot-ridden Allied prisoner camps on Koje Island.

Harrison told the Reds during a 38-minute meeting at Panmunjom that "no further concessions will be forthcoming" on the April 28 Allied prisoner proposal. Another Red-demanded session was set for 11 a. m. Friday (9 p. m. Thursday EST).

The UN is unwilling to force repatriation of some 100,000 internees who have indicated they won't rejoin the Reds voluntarily. The Communists insist on return of all 169,000 Allied-held personnel.

Despite his moderate tone, Nam continued to charge the Allied stand on prisoners violated the Geneva Convention and "widened the breach" of disagreement over prisoner exchange.

Argentine Quakes Leave 40 Dead

SAN JUAN, June 12—(AP)—Three earthquakes within two days here in the Andean foothills have killed 40 persons and injured 65. Thousands of others huddle outside in freezing weather rather than take shelter in buildings they fear will collapse.

Two tremors Wednesday toppled buildings weakened by a bad jarring the day before. Panic, which had quieted after the first shock, surged anew.

Wavering Delegates Sought By Taft and Eisenhower Now

WASHINGTON, June 12—(AP)—The Taft-Eisenhower tug-of-war for Republican presidential nomination votes swung to New York City Thursday, each contender huddling separately with the same group—New Jersey's 38-member delegation.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower has been holding conferences all this week with state delegates to the July 7 national convention. Sen.

Robert Taft of Ohio, his chief rival for the GOP presidential nomination, arrived in New York Wednesday for the same purpose.

Their paths crossed at the outset. The New Jersey bloc, now heavily pro-Eisenhower, meets with Taft and an hour and a half later confers with Eisenhower. The strategy on both sides: With all but 13 of the 1,206 delegates chosen, the time has come to tighten favoring alignments and win over fence-sitters and those leaning the other way.

Neither Taft nor Eisenhower is any way near the 604-vote majority needed for nomination. The Associated Press tabulation lists 464 for Taft and 391 for Eisenhower, with 130 spread among others and 208 disputed or uncommitted.

THE DEMOCRATIC race, to be decided at the party's July 21 convention, is even more inconclusive. To date, 1,058 of the 1,230 delegates have been chosen, with Connecticut scheduled to add 16 more at a convention Friday.

The tally shows Tennessee's Sen. Estes Kefauver ahead with 246 votes. Second is Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia with 86½, followed by Mutual Security Administrator W. Averell Harriman with 85½. Others have a total of 246, and 394 are not yet staked off.

These most active candidates for the Democratic nomination, which requires a majority vote of 616, either were campaigning or getting ready to.

Harriman was touring the west. Kefauver was in North Carolina, ready to swing into his home-state Tennessee Friday. Russell was poised in Washington for a two-week tour of 15 states.

After Eisenhower met Wednesday with New York and Maryland GOP delegates, he was quoted as saying he favors a $40 billion tax cut over the next two or three years.

Federal levies are now about $80 billion, President Truman has re-

Thugs Run Hotel, Rob 25 Guests

NEW YORK, June 12—(AP)—Three holdup men took over operation of a mid-Manhattan hotel for three hours Thursday, systematically robbing at least 25 guests.

The trio entered the Hotel Emerson at 4 a. m., imprisoned the night manager and elevator operator in a room, and went to work.

Arriving and departing guests were robbed methodically of cash and jewelry, then hustled into the room with the imprisoned hotel staff. Police said they took $102 from the hotel's cash register and a much larger amount from the guests.

Cops Cannot Say Much About Bingo

EAST LIVERPOOL, June 12—(AP)—The crackdown on bingo appears to be easing in Columbiana County—the cops are playing it, too.

The corn-on-the-cob game came out into the open Wednesday at a carnival sponsored by East Liverpool police. A veterans group immediately resumed operation of what it called bingo-for-charity and a civic league was expected to follow suit. Bingo had been virtually non-existent here since May 22 when Judge Joel H. Sharp ruled the game a "lottery prohibited by the state constitution."

Nation's Weather Pattern Is Varied

CHICAGO, June 12—(AP)—The nation's weather pattern showed little change Thursday. It was warm and humid over most of the southern half and cool in the northeastern region and the far west and rain in the Midwest.

Snow fell in Lakeview, Ore., and temperatures there were at about the freezing mark. At the same time readings were 80 above in Omaha, and 77 above in Texas and Miami.

Rocky Mountain Area Expects $750 Million In Tourist Gold

DENVER, June 12—(AP)—A flood of tourist gold—close to $750 million—is expected to pour into the Rocky Mountain States before summer's end.

It will be spent by an estimated 20 million persons from other states. That's close to five times the population of the seven states with their lofty peaks, summer glaciers and high altitude coolness.

Despite the bites chewed from income by taxes and high living costs, nearly all of the seven states expect more pleasure-seeking visitors than ever.

An American Automobile Association director last week predicted nearly 22 per cent of all American vacationists will visit Colorado,

Taft-Hartley Law Seen Only Course Open

House Panel Joins Senate In Refusing Steel Grab Powers

WASHINGTON, June 12—(AP)—Hope was waning Thursday that Congress would grant President Truman legal powers to seize the steel industry so that production might be resumed.

Negative action came on both sides of Capitol Hill as a House committee voted against the President's request and Truman's backers in the Senate virtually abandoned their efforts in his behalf.

It appeared that the only course left open to the President was the one he wanted least—use of the Taft-Hartley law's injunction procedure.

Meanwhile, on another steel front, union and management officials got together with government chiefs to plan reopening a few strike-bound steel plants to produce weapons for U. S. troops fighting in Korea.

The House Banking Committee voted down 15 to 10 a proposal that Truman be empowered to seize and operate the struck steel mills.

It was the first formal vote by any House group since Truman went before Congress Tuesday and pleaded for this power.

THE SENATE previously had rebuffed Truman by voting he should use anti-strike provisions of the Taft-Hartley law in an effort to end the strike of 650,000 CIO Steelworkers.

At the same time, senators favoring seizure power for the President abandoned their fight to write it

Kenton Killer Loses His Appeal

COLUMBUS, June 12—(AP)—Chesley Gregg, 58, of Kenton is scheduled to die July 11 in the electric chair at Ohio Penitentiary for the shotgun slaying last year of his "lonely hearts" bride.

The Ohio Supreme Court set the execution date Wednesday after refusing to review Gregg's appeal from his first-degree murder conviction. Gregg was convicted of killing Alma Gleim Gregg, operator of a lonely heart correspondence club, during a dispute over her suit for divorce.

6 Wacs Scheduled To Get Hearing

WASHINGTON, June 12—(AP)—The nation's highest military tribunal has set June 24 as the date to hear the appeals of six court-martialed Wac sergeants who beat up another woman soldier near Ft. Breckinridge, Ky., Oct. 4.

The court of military appeals, composed of three civilian judges, will hear the appeals of the sergeants against their court-martial convictions on charges of joint assault on former Pfc. Carol A. Kierce, Mount Vernon, O., a few hours after she had appeared as a witness before another military court at the camp.

3 Women Slated For Lima Tests

CINCINNATI, June 12—(AP)—Three women, accused of mailing letters derogatory to an insurance company for 11 years, have been ordered to Lima State Hospital for mental observation.

They are Miss Anna Lee Talbott, 71; her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Miller, 73, and Elizabeth Miller, 35, her daughter, who have been living near Lexington, Ky.

The women were arrested for making false statements concerning the financial standing of the Union Central Life Insurance Co.

They Measure Rain In Feet In Northwest

Any Dry Day Is Wash Day For Women Out In Valseltz, Ore.

CHICAGO, June 12 — (AP)—They don't pay much attention to showers in some places in the U. S.

They're accustomed to rain. Take, for instance, Valseltz, Ore., a lumber town.

The source of weather news there used to report precipitation figures to newsmen. The stories customarily began:

"In Valseltz, where they measure rainfall in feet instead of inches," this or that happened. (It rained, probably.)

In 1950, the count reached 168.11 inches—or, to use the storied yardstick, 14 feet.

The giving out of such statistics has been halted. The lumber company said the hiring of loggers and mill hands was getting a bit too tough.

The nation's wettest spots naturally include Clearwater, Wash. THIS IS A logging community on the west side of the Olympia peninsula. Weather bureau records show the rainfall there averages 129.7 inches per year.

But neither drizzle nor downpour can stay the loggers. They simply put on their rainy day gear—metal hats and rubber or water-repellent clothing. Most of them also wear woolen underwear.

"No matter how cold and wet you get," they comment rather paradoxically, "you're always warm and dry."

Boots are standard equipment in Clearwater for everybody who goes outside. The frequency of days on the dark side has had an influence on architecture and interior decoration—large windows and light shades of paint within the houses.

But moisture is good for pastures and growing trees and cranberries west of the coast range in the Pacific Northwest.

Azaleas and camellias also require lots of water, and that's what they get in the Mobile area of Alabama.

Mobile's rainfall, over a 30-year period, averaged 5.18 inches a month.

Men there keep one raincoat at the office and another one at home. Business houses in the low-flying wholesale district near the Mobile River have employees against placing rain stoppers against cracks under street-level doors at closing time.

For the women, almost any dry day is wash day.

RAIN. ON the other hand, creates problems in normally arid sections. One of these is Brawley, Calif., where it has averaged only 2.73 inches per year.

Most of the roads there are unpaved. A rainstorm turns them into quagmires. Schools declare "mud holidays."

A man at the Chamber of Commerce wet his lips and said: "I doubt if there has been a raincoat sold in Brawley in 50 years."

County Road To Be Closed

Work On Bridge To Halt Traffic

The Good Hope-New Holland Road is to be closed to traffic for about two weeks starting on Monday or Tuesday.

This announcement comes from County Engineer Charles Wagner who said that the road is to be closed while county highway crews build new abutments on the bridge over Compton Creek on that road.

In other parts of the county, Wagner reported that resurfacing work was "coming right along."

The Prairie Pike, which has been completely resurfaced, will be finished sometime Thursday, Wagner said.

The Gregg, Wesley Chapel and Wildwood Roads are already finished.

Fair skies the past week have given the county road crews a fast start on their annual summer repair program.

Door-To-Door Salesmanship On Increase

Doorbell-Pushing Still Big Business, Proponents Claim

NEW YORK, June 12—(AP)—Is the door-to-door salesman vanishing from the American scene? Is the modern descendant of the old Yankee peddler fading into oblivion?

"No," say the companies which depend on these people for distribution of their products. "If anything, their number is increasing."

Proponents of "direct selling," the direct distribution of merchandise from factory to home, profess to see a new opportunity for the time-tested doorbell-pushing technique in the current swing toward a buyers' market.

Time was when a certain segment of retail opinion believed the door-to-door salesman was on the way out—a victim of television.

According to this theory, televised demonstrations of consumer products and televised sales talks which could be viewed by the housewife in her home would make the home visits of the door-to-door vendor unnecessary.

Today, however, TV is being used to promote direct selling.

Direct selling is big business. Total volume is estimated by the National Association of Direct Selling Companies at more than $10 billion a year. According to the National Better Business Bureau Inc., with which local better business bureaus across the country are affiliated, more than 6,000 American companies are engaged in direct selling with a total sales force of 1½ million men and women.

The Electrolux Co., easily the nation's biggest manufacturer of vacuum cleaners, employs 10,000 door-to-door salesmen.

Avon Products Inc., cosmetics manufacturers, had sales last year of more than $35.8 million. Its products are distributed to American homes by 16,000 independent sales representatives, many of them housewives. "We haven't deviated from this system in 66 years," says George K. Graves Jr., Avon vice president.

Then there's the ubiquitous Fuller Brush man, backbone of the huge sales organization of Fuller Brush Co., of Hartford, Conn. A host of other house-to-house vendors peddle everything from lingerie to tailored suits, razor blades to washing machines, kitchenware

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. EAVEY'S ICE CREAM Assorted Flavors Pt. 28c

An explosive chapter in the history of pioneer railroading, which has been revamped in the interests of drama, filmed in vivid Technicolor and performed by a highly competent cast, will be on view at the State Theatre Sunday when Paramount's "Denver & Rio Grande" begins its run.

With Edmond O'Brien, Sterling Hayden, Dean Jagger, Laura Elliott and Lyle Bettger starred, this fast-rolling thriller mixes sweeping spectacle and violent action as it spotlights the desperate struggle between two railroads fighting for the single right of way from Denver to the West.

Two big thrillers are coming to the Palace Theatre, Fri., Sat. and Sunday. Out of a trap of 1,000 horrors comes the terrifying "The Invisible Man." Karloff the uncanny in "The Mummy".

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, June 12 — (AP)—While the steel strike goes on the President and Congress play beanbag. The President tosses the steel problem to Congress. Congress tosses it back.

The President's plea to Congress was: Give me a law that can do something about a strike. So far the reaction seems to be: Stew in your own juice; you already have a law.

The President could use the Taft-Hartley act, which is supposed to stop a strike for 80 days but it is questionable whether the steel—already on strike, would go back now even if ordered.

But Truman says he doesn't like T-H. He says it's a poor way to solve the problem. Philip Murray doesn't like T-H either. He's president of the striking CIO Steelworkers and a political ally of Truman.

So Truman suggests Congress a brand new piece of legislation, giving him authority to seize the steel-mills, just as he did without law before the Supreme Court told him last week to give them back.

BUT CONGRESS, or those members of it who disagree with him or don't like him or don't like labor unions, have him over a bit of a barrel. Since T-H does exist and hasn't been tried they can tell him to try it before coming to them.

If Truman had played this scene differently in the beginning—by using T-H when a steel strike was first threatened last Jan. 1—he'd have had Congress over a barrel.

If he had used T-H, of course, there's no telling how badly this might have fractured his friendship with Murray or how many labor votes it might have cost the Democrats.

If he had used T-H back in January to delay the strike 80 days, once that time was up and there was no settlement, the workers could have struck. There was no other law to stop or delay them further.

In that case Truman could have gone to Congress and said: See, T-H didn't work, so give me a law that will.

Congress wouldn't have been able to toss anything back at him then. He could have sat by, letting Congress stew in its own juice until it finally gave him authority.

Instead, he tried everything but T-H. He succeeded, first by persuasion and then by illegal seizure of the mills, to delay the strike six months, which was much longer than the 80 days T-H could have delayed it.

IF THE STRIKE continues much longer and Congress still won't bail him out, Truman probably will have to use T-H to try to get the

Floods a Menace By Great Lakes

Baffling Overflow Causes Big Loss

By JOHN F. SEMBOWER

CHICAGO—The Great Lakes, world's largest inland waterway system, is overflowing and everyone, including United States Army Engineers, is baffled over what to do about it.

Meanwhile, a billion dollars' worth of damage threatens over a wide area from one of the strangest floods in history—a "slow flood" associated with lakes rather than rivers, but none the less destructive to the property of millions along the lengthy shorelines bordering 96,000 square miles of water.

The United States Army Engineers have been holding hearings on the extent of the losses in prospect. In this city and its suburbs, whole beaches and parks have been wiped out, and streets and apartment houses undermined. On the rural shores, houses are being undermined, and are on the verge of tumbling into the waters.

Similar reports pour in from Buffalo, Cleveland and other points on Lake Erie; communities on Lake Huron, the entire Lake Superior area, and from virtually every town on Michigan's shore.

So grim is the outlook that not even Lloyds of London, the fabulous insurance house which prides itself on underwriting almost anything, will quote on wave insurance which once was a standard form of coverage in the Great Lakes region.

BY JULY the levels of Lakes Michigan and Huron will be 53.8 feet above mean tide at New York, and the highest since records were started 97 years ago. The previous workers back on the job. And that might not be mad political medicine for Truman.

At the end of 80 days, if there was still no settlement, the workers could walk out again, that time with nothing to stop them unless Congress passed some new law.

But by that time it would be around the first of September, just a couple of months before election, and Congress is not expected to be in session that long. So Congress might have to stop electioneering and return.

In addition, if Truman, having stood on the union's side so long in this case, is finally pushed into using T-H, it's doubtful labor leaders like Murray would be very angry with him.

From Truman's viewpoint, if he has to use T-H, it might not be bad to do so now while using it last January might have been poison.

high was 53.8 in June, 1886.

Both lakes rose an additional three and a half inches during April. An immediate cause in believed to be last year's unusually cool summer, which retarded normal evaporation loss, and heavier than-usual rainfall in the huge 300,000 square mile drainage system.

However, no one can be sure, because fluctuations in the level of the lakes have mystified scientists for generations. Although they are not affected by tides, there seems to be a hook-up between their capacity and solar radiation, causing 21-year cycles in the level.

Unusually full periods were recorded in 1862, 1886, 1907, 1929, and now. A prolonged cloudy, period could have considerable effect, since it is estimated that evaporation takes from 20 to 28 inches of water from Lake Michigan each year.

THERE MAY be longer range forces at work, however, because geologists long have considered the lakes one of their most intriguing problems. Born during the withdrawal of the huge glaciers, the lakes originally were much more depressed than now by the weight of the great ice sheets.

For thousands of years, the earth's crust has been springing back under its lightened load, so that former shorelines now sometimes are high bluffs. An extinct lake bed larger than all five Great Lakes put together has been found in the Dakotas, Minnesota, and neighboring Canada, with Lake Winnipeg as a remnant. Scandinavia and Siberia had similar vast post-glacial lakes.

Could the lake basin be rising slightly so that the water overflows? If this is so, man-made efforts to confine the water within present boundaries seem puny indeed. Canada, with Toronto suffering great damage, nevertheless hopes that the St. Lawrence Waterway might help.

ANOTHER proposal is that Chicago's drainage canal, which taps Lake Michigan for water that eventually flows down the Mississippi in a river bed whose flow actually is reversed, should be permitted to drain off its maximum possible flow.

The United States Supreme Court rule limited the drainage in 1939, when cities around Lake Michigan feared that it would be emptied. However, this now offers small comfort, since engineers calculate that even the full flow of 10,000 cubic feet a second would reduce the level only an inch and a half the first year and four inches in five years, not enough to counterbalance the present rate of rise.

It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, however, and the lake shipping is booming as a result of the deeper waters. The average iron ore boats can carry an additional 90 tons of cargo per trip with every increase of one inch in draft.

With 498 ships of Canadian and American registry operating on the lakes, a conservative estimate places the additional iron ore which will be delivered to the big steel mills this year at 1,080,000 tons.

There are believed to be more cattle on U. S. farms today than at any time in history.

County Plowing Matches Near; Set for July 1

Entry Blanks For Contestants Ready Next Week

With the county plowing matches drawing near, word was spread around today that those who want to get into the competition should start getting their equipment ready now.

The matches are to be held on the Fayette Hereford Ranch along the Robinson Road on July 1. That leaves less than three weeks for preparations.

Application blanks for contestants are to be available at the county Extension Service office and the Soil Conservation Service office at 723 Delaware Street next week. No deadline has been set for making the declaration of entry, but Robert Glass, the soil planner, suggested "get them in early to be assured of a tract."

There will be both level land and contour plowing contests. The program for the Field Day has been broadened to include air tours (for a fixed fee) and a land judging contest.

The land judging is something comparatively new and is to include contests for Future Farmers of America and 4-H club boys, members of the veterans agricultural courses and adult farmers.

The route for the air tour is now being mapped out under the direction of Max Allen. It is designed to give a bird's eye view not only of the plowing matches but also of a vast section of the countryside around the Field Day site.

Leo Fisher is the general chairman of the event.

AN OPPORTUNITY to make a bid for the area plowing matches or Field Day for Fayette County was passed up this year, it was said, because the area Field Day was held here last year and the state Field Day is to be held here next year as a part of the Sesqui-centennial celebration.

The national plowing matches are to be held this year in Minnesota on Sept. 5 and 6 and the state matches in Adams County Aug. 13.

Just when the area Field Day will be held is still uncertain; the date has not yet been set. In this area with Fayette County are Butler, Hamilton, Greene, Clinton, Brown, Highland, Ross, Warren and Clermont.

The Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service and the special Field Day committee headed by Fisher are cooperating on the arrangements for the county event. Albert Cobb of the Extension Service is guiding the land judging contest plans and can provide the details.

Typical Congressman of Today Makes Like a Sherlock Holmes

By Raymond Wilcox
Central Press Correspondent
WASHINGTON—The old cliché "there ought to be a law" is matched in Congress by the demand "there ought to be an investigation."

If congressmen had their way, there would be so many investigations that there probably wouldn't be time left to pass any laws.

Ninety-two proposals for investigations have been introduced in the House alone during the 82nd Congress.

They range from a demand for an investigation to determine whether the gold reserve at Fort Knox, Ky., is intact to a proposal that a committee determine why President Truman made "inaccurate statements" regarding the presence of Russians in Iran.

A survey revealed the wide range of the proposals made by congressmen for investigation. Since five members usually represent the minimum named to conduct a probe (normally it's seven or more), it is questionable whether there would be enough members to fill the committees without duplication.

EVERYBODY hears about the investigations that actually get off the ground. There are the investigations of tax scandals, of Senator Joseph McCarthy (R), Wisconsin, of baseball, of the Justice department, etc. Now the House is investigating books and magazines and radio and television programs.

Rarely does the public hear, however, of the investigations that die a-borning. They expire in the House rules committee, whose 12 members have approved only a handful of the 92 demands for investigations.

Some of them are very meritorious, others are, at best, charitably consigned to a dusty committee pigeonhole.

What does a congressman want investigated? Many are interested in the problems of the aging. Ten House members have asked for an investigation.

EVERYONE is interested in the high cost of living and Rep. Charles A. Wolverton (R), New Jersey, would like to have investigated the factors which result in HCL.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D), Ohio also interested in this problem, would like to have Congress look into the spread between prices received by base producers of commodities and those paid by consumers.

Another subject which is really sky-high, artificial rain making, should also be looked into, in the opinion of Rep. Frank E. Smith (D.) Mississippi.

There is considerable interest among Congressmen in keeping sports honest. At the height of the basketball fix scandals, Rep. Louis B. Heller (D.) New York, introduced a resolution for an investigation and stipulated that the probe should also look into the illegal sale of narcotics.

Rep. Victor L. Anfuso (D), New York, feels that the extent of gambling control over horse racing, a sport close to the hearts of many congressmen, should be determined by a special committee, and Rep. L. Garry Clemente (D.) New York, thinks there may be something wrong with the manly art of self-defense, as practiced professionally.

MAJOR catastrophes usually bring demands for a congressional investigation. Sometimes they are accepted. The three air crashes adjacent to Newark airport resulted in the introduction by two

Unemployment At Low Mark For '52 Here

Jobs Picking Up As Summer Work Drains Off Idle

The number of people seeking jobs through the State Employment Service here is at its lowest point since the beginning of the year, and a majority of those on the waiting list now are only temporarily unemployed people.

This information comes from Ward C. Miller, manager at the Market Street.

The explanation for this drop in unemployment, according to Miller, is the beginning to the summer farm, small business and construction hiring and the fact that "most local industries are pretty stable in their operations."

Miller revealed that the number on the rolls at the end of May was 112 as compared with 158 on March 31; 81 on May 31, 1951; and 136 on March 31, 1951.

ABOUT THE only lay-offs in Washington C. H. industry lately have been at three plants, two of which only sent their employees away temporarily.

One plant, he noted, has kept from laying people off by going on a four day work week.

Miller pointed out that although the dip in unemployment is seasonal, "in comparison with other state employment offices in the area," the Washington C. H. office right now has comparatively fewer people on its rolls.

A lot of the unemployment in Washington C. H., Miller explained, has been due to recent layoffs in Dayton industries. He mentioned specifically that approximately 25 city and county residents got caught in the recent Frigidair lay-off.

Miller estimated that there are

Eagle Convention Delegates Named

Delegates and alternates who will represent from Fayette Aerie No. 423, of Washington C. H., at the 1952 Ohio State Aerie convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles at Cincinnati, June 12-15, have been announced by Aerie President Ralph D. Fisher.

They are: Charles E. Osborne, Earl G. Allison, Frank Grubbs, Wilbur K. Barger, District Deputy and Glenn B. Rodgers, treasurer.

Selection of the convention city by the Ohio State Aerie board of trustees was announced to the aerie here last week. The convention will be held at the roof garden of the Hotel Sheraton Gibson and the hotel will be convention headquarters, Worthy President Fisher said.

Church School To Open Here Monday

The Summer Vacation Church School at Grace Methodist Church will begin Monday, at 9:00 A. M. The School will be held Monday through Friday for a two-week period.

The theme for the two-week study will center around the Bible, and there will be classes for children in the kindergarten, primary, and junior departments.

The School is being directed by more than 100 people in the city and county working in Dayton at the moment.

Just to illustrate the kind of job replacements at this time of year, Miller said that in a two day period this week, 12 out of 25 people referred to employees went to farm jobs.

Ike, Backers Split on Platform

WASHINGTON, June 12 — The Republicans' official, 1950 declaration of party principles and objectives, which General Eisenhower has recommended as the basis for a 1952 platform, was regarded as such a "back to Methuselah" document by his campaign managers and leading supporters for the presidential nomination that they denounced it and refused to sign it.

The principal framers of this off-year statement were Senator Taft, Ike's main rival to head the ticket this year, former House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr. and national Chairman Guy Gabrielson.

Martin favors General MacArthur in the current contest, and MacArthur openly backs Taft. Although supposedly neutral, Chairman Gabrielson reflects the national committee's preference for the Ohio Senator.

WISHY-WASHY — The Eisenhower critics of the "liberty against socialism" creed, which was the headlinish title of the opus, included such promoters as Senators Lodge, Duff, Smith of Maine, Aiken of Vermont, Ives of New York, Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, Governor Alfred E. Driscoll of New Jersey and Ike's two House supporters — Representatives Javits of New York and Fulton of Pennsylvania.

They objected on two counts — namely, the wishy-washy, pussy-footing declaration on civil rights legislation, and the general denunciation of Roosevelt- Truman reforms as "socialistic."

Senator Lodge, Ike's campaign manager, and Governor Dewey, Eisenhower's original sponsor after his own 1948 defeat for the presidency, were the most articulate and vocal in their condemnation.

DILEMMA — Since his return from Europe, Eisenhower has discussed this dilemma with these 1950 dissenters. They have told him that, although they differed on phraseology and the specific handling of certain issues, they really believed in the broad principles enunciated in the party pronouncement.

But that is not the way they talked in February of 1950, when the Taft-Martin-Gabrielson faction charted the GOP course.

The circumstances behind the issuance of this off-year statement give it unusual importance in Republican annals. It was meant to be a mandate for the Congressional elections of that year, when it was feared that the combined Truman-labor forces might deal the party a blow by defeating Taft in Ohio. He won by 431,000 on this platform and his own record.

It was also designed to allay rumors of serious differences between Taft and the late Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, the GOP's champion of a bipartisan foreign policy. "Van" approved the statement's reference to foreign matters, which was his main concern, and made no objections to its approach to domestic issues.

Oddly, or perhaps naturally, Arthur H. Vandenberg Jr. is one of General Eisenhower's political aides. Just before the statement was issued, when the writer questioned Taft about reports of his feud with the since deceased Michigan statesman, the Ohioan retorted:

"What do I have to do — kiss Arthur at high noon every day before the Senate convenes to prove that there are no hard feelings between us?"

PLATFORM — In an effort to ascertain party sentiment, Gabrielson sent letters to 50,000 field workers, and more than 10,000 responded. Representatives from the House, Senate and national committee spent most of December and January in boiling down the answers into a succinct statement. The three groups argued angrily over the finished document at closed sessions on February 6, 1950 — a date that may become politically famous.

The platform as issued advocated continuance of a bipartisan foreign program, but assailed the Yalta-Potsdam "secret" agreements and White House neglect of the Senate's treaty-making authority.

It demanded a balanced budget, tax reductions, farm price supports, improvement of the Taft-Hartley Act along the line of pending Taft amendments, extension of social security coverage and an increase in payments, elimination of Communists and fellow-travelers from the government.

On civil rights it said: "We shall continue to sponsor legislation to protect the rights of minorities."

Eisenhower favors leaving this and similar problems to the so-called "liberals," although declaring that, as president, he would use his influence in this cause.

INFURIATED — This right-wing victory infuriated the so-called "liberals," despite their more recent soothing comments to Eisenhower.

enactment of civil rights legislation, and a GOP alliance with Truman Democrats to smash the southerners' filibuster on this issue. He demurred from the characterization of the Truman Administration as "socialists," describing them as "mere opportunists." The slogan of "liberty against socialism," said the Bay State blue blood, was an "overstatement."

Senator Ives branded the statement as "disappointing" because it "falls far short of the 1948 platform (a Dewey-Warren product) on civil rights labor-management relations and social responsibility." Speaking at Princeton a few days later, Dewey blew his top.

'REACTION' — He attacked "the very loud voices in the Republican party denouncing all the platforms and candidates with the epithet, 'me too.' He said that the "complaint and the epithet originate largely with those who hold isolationist or extremely conservative views, or both." He scoffed at the statement's sponsors as "the croaking voices of reaction."

The New York governor wound up with a quote from his fellow-executive, Driscoll of New Jersey, who is an all-out Ike man. Dewey referred approvingly to Driscoll's remark that "there are some Republicans who believe that, if the Democrats say they are for the Ten Commandments and the Bill of Rights, we should be against them."

Dewey also denounced the anti-Truman, Capitol Hill coalition of Republicans and southern Democrats. In view of Ike's obvious play to Dixie with his states' rights attitude on FEPC, where do the general and his political backers go from here, with Ike himself recommending what appalled his backers in 1950?

Sauer Collects 3 Homers Off Cousin Curt

Cub Slugger Repeats Same Record Chalked Up In 1950 Contest

NEW YORK, June 12 — (P)—No one will dare ask Hank Sauer to sit out the 1952 All-Star game. The big fellow from Chicago stands in Ted Williams' shoes as the leading slugger in all baseball.

From the trend of the early '52 balloting, Sauer may wind up with the most votes of any player in either league. At least he will if he has many more days like Wednesday.

Sauer hammered three of "cousin" Curt Simmons' pitches into the leftfield bleacher area for a 3-2 Cub win over the Phillies. Back in 1950 he also hit three homers off Simmons in an Aug. 28 game at Wrigley Field. No other major league batter ever hit three homers off the same pitcher in two different games.

There was much fussing and fuming in St. Louis where both Manager Chuck Dressen and Pee-wee Reese of Brooklyn were tossed out of the game with the St. Louis Cardinals.

DEL RICE'S single in the 10th gave the Cards a 3-2 win, slicing the Dodgers' National League lead to four games.

Jim Hearn pitched the New York Giants past Cincinnati, 3-2, with a four hitter and Murry Dickson of Pittsburgh blanked Boston, 5-0.

The New York Yankees strengthened their American League lead with a 7-2 win over Detroit on Johnny Sain's pitching and home runs by Joe Collins and Yogi Berra.

Washington's Bob Porterfield shutout Cleveland's Bob Lemon, 1-0, to let the Boston Red Sox take over second place with a win over St. Louis, 11-9.

The Red Sox blasted Satchel Paige for six in the ninth, including a game winning grand slam homer by Catcher Sammy White.

The Philadelphia A's knocked off Chicago, 5-3, on a four-run rally in the sixth that included a two-run homer by Al Clark, filling in for injured Gus Zernial.

The Red Sox explosion was the most dramatic event in the American as it came against Paige who has been showing fine relief form. He hadn't allowed a run for 27 innings.

Coasting into the ninth with a comfortable 9-5 lead for Marty Marion's new charges, Old Satch loaded the bases on two infield singles and a walk. Vern Stephens popped out but Paige walked Billy Goodman to force in a run. Ted Lepcio's single scored another run and White cleaned the bases.

'Softball Games Not Yet Balked

Unbeaten Team Coming Friday

Whether there is a baseball game Thursday night at Wilson Field depends largely on the weather. And the same is true of Friday night when Curl's Trailers are slated to come here from Springfield to meet the Rocking Chairs of the Fast League.

GAMES CALLED OFF

Fred Pierson announced at noon that Thursday night's twin bill softball program at Wilson Field had been called off because of threatening weather. He explained that prospects of more rain made play too uncertain.

The rain that fell up to noon Thursday hardly more than laid the dust on the diamond. But the sky was still overcast and the air cool; so anything could happen any time.

If the weather does not get unruly, however, the Pennington Bakers and Armo boys of the Industrial League will take the field at 7:15 P. M. and out-fits representing Buck and Red and the French Mfg. Co. of the Fast League will move in at 8 P. M. as soon as the Industrial League tilt is finished.

The Friday night game between the Curl Trailers and Rockers will be the first with an out-of-town team this week. And, if the advance notices about the Trailers are not too exaggerated, it should be a hot one. The Springfielders have not lost a game this season and the Rockers are one of the potentially real hot teams of the Fast League.

THE SLUMP in attendance at the games here has been giving the softball organizations, the headmen and the ardent fans some concern. They point out that the softball program here is now on its own; for the past five years it got some financial backing from the tax-supported city recreation program. That ended last year, however, and now the contributions at the gate have to be counted on to take care of the expenses.

The turnouts up to now have not been big enough, to relieve the anxiety about money. Television is partly blamed, for, there is no lack of interest among the players.

Max Lawrence and Fred Pierson, who are running the show this year, said they had been trying to bring in some of the best teams in the state to play Fast League teams on Wednesday and Friday night, the two open dates on the league schedules. But the crowds have not been anything like they were last year; that's what is causing the concern.

Dinner Date Cops Old Country Trot

WESTBURY, N. Y., June 12 — (P)—Dinner Date, a brown filly owned by A. L. Derby of Wichita, Kas., took over the lead in the stretch Wednesday night for a three length victory in the first division of the $7,125 Old Country Trot at Roosevelt Raceway.

MAURER graduated from Wittenberg in 1930 and received his Masters Degree from Columbia University in 1933. He has spent three terms at Ohio State this far.

He was head coach in both football and basketball in 1946-47-48 and head basketball and baseball coach for the past three years. Maurer was backfield coach in football during 1950-51-52.

College officials emphasized the fact that Maurer would "be back" for the 1953 school term. The popular mentor has turned out some powerful basketball and baseball teams during the past six years.

His replacement has not been named as yet.

Athletic Director Tom Ness stated that several applications are being screened at the present time.

CINCINNATI, June 12 — (P)—The Cincinnati Reds slipped into the same old rut Wednesday night—getting kicked around again by Metropolitan New York's two National League ball clubs.

Thus far the Reds have dropped eight straight to Brooklyn. They had lost four in a row to the New York Giants prior to Tuesday night's triumph. Wednesday night, however, was another story and the Giants made it five out of six for the season as they bunched four of their seven hits in the fifth inning for a 3-2 victory.

Mail Embezzler Given Jail Term

CINCINNATI, June 12 — (P)—Harold P. Lewis, 23, a postoffice employe at Middletown, was sentenced to four months in jail by U. S. District Judge John H. Druffel Wednesday for embezzling from the mail.

20 Women Golfers Out for Ladies Day

Mrs. Wayne Shobe turned in a card of 51 for the low score of the Wednesday "Ladies Day" golf at the Country Club, but some of the glitter was taken from it by Mrs. Harry Fox's sensational putting—only 15 strokes on the nine greens.

The turnout for these weekly events is growing steadily. The last one drew 20 of the feminine followers of the sport to the fairways. They were Mrs. Ronald Cornwell, Mrs. Marvin Thornburg, Mrs. Richard R. Willis, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Shobe, Mrs. Howard Osborne, Mrs. William Wead, Mrs. Bud Schlue, Mrs. Dwight Coffman, Mrs. Elmer Reed, Mrs. J. E. Dabe, Mrs. Roger Littleton, Mrs. Charlotte Zimmerman, Mrs. Mary Gillespie, Miss Ellen Gillespie, Miss Kathleen Davis, Mrs. James Rose, Mrs. Marvin Roszmann and Mrs. Byers Shaw.

Most of them will be going to Chillicothe Thursday for a Ladies Day there.

Tony Capuana, the club pro here, said after looking over the cards that "most of them are improving... and there are newcomers nearly every week."

The variety of events that put the spice in the play gives everyone a chance to claim some sort of honor.

Miss Gillespie won the first blind bogey and Mrs. Willis the second. Mrs. Shaw had the most even-numbered scores on nine holes and Mrs. Zimmerman the most odd-numbered.

Mrs. Roszmann was tabbed as the most improved golfer of the week.

Mrs. Coffman had the best poker hand on her card and Mrs. Dabe registered a birdie on No. 8.

Patsy Captures Home Colt Stake

COLUMBUS, June 12 — (P)—Patsy, owned by D. C. Cessna of Kenton, captured the Home Talent Colt Stake Association Trophy race, feature event at Hilliards Raceway Wednesday night.

Patsy, driven by C. Cox, placed behind the favored Nod Away in the first heat in the fourth but came back to win the second dash in the seventh.

or challengers Sugar Ray Robinson and Randy Turpin.

Naturally a title fight against the winner of the June 23 Maxim-Robinson championship battle would please him the most.

Jake thinks his unanimous decision over Irish Bob Murphy Wednesday night in one of Detroit's wildest-swinging, most-rousing 10-round fights, proved he could campaign as a light heavyweight. Jake is a former middleweight champion but has forsaken the lighter class.

"I think I could beat Maxim easier than I beat Murphy," said the Bronx Bull. "Maxim's my kind of fighter." Jake has now won three straight in his comeback.

A CROWD of 16,008 exploded to its toes when Jake, behind on points, battered Murphy with savage rights and lefts to win the ninth and 10th rounds and the decision. Murphy had a 64-pound edge.

Observers agreed they had rarely seen Lamotta box so cleverly and look so fit physically. Lamotta had claimed he was underweight when he was stopped by Robinson and overweight when stopped by Murphy in 1951 fights that almost pushed him into retirement.

For eight rounds the two sluggers traded block-busters with each other in the nationally-televised and broadcast battle.

Murphy held a six-point edge on the combined scorecards when Jake finally solved the ex-sailor's left-handed style and pounded his face at two minutes of the ninth round. Jake continued the attack and went on to win.

Lemon Let Down By Batters Again

WASHINGTON, June 12 — (P)—For Bob Lemon it was too good to last—hitting support with his mound work for Cleveland's Indians.

His teammates supplied some overdue runs for Bob last Thursday as they whipped Philadelphia, 11-4. But Wednesday night, with four-hit pitching from Lemon, they just once reached third base and Washington's Senators edged them 1-0. It was the fifth such heart-breaker for Lemon, who now has won five and lost six. Other decisions were 2-0, 3-2, 2-1 and 6-4.

Load Up Your Arsenal To Fight Garden Pests

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

If you're determined to have a garden you automatically inherit some of the ills and pests plants are heirs to.

Fortunately, nature and man have co-operated to provide the gardener with a pretty adequate arsenal of effective weapons with which to conduct warfare on these two enemies, although it's practically an all-season job.

Sprays, dusts, poison baits and the reluctant hand of the gardener are not the only means of reducing the insect, worm and caterpillar population. There are also a few predatory insects which the gardener should learn to know and spare. Among them are the weird green praying mantis, the orange and black spotted lady bug and the dragon fly. Some of them devour insect pests, others dine on aphids.

The gardener's greatest natural ally, however, is the bird family, most of whom consume many times their weight in bugs in the course of a short period. All of which makes the hobby of attracting birds good business as well as a pleasure.

IT WOULD BE impossible, in a short article, to run the gamut of protective weapons. New chemical controls are appearing regularly, many of them highly lethal to friend and enemy alike when used unwisely. All of them, and particularly those of the DDT family, should be used wisely, and the printed instructions followed to the exact letter. Extravagant use of some has resulted in death and crippling of birds and even family pets.

For practical purposes, the insect world may be divided into two parts: the chewing insects and the sucking insects. Chewing insects may be kept under rein by the use of sprays and dusts of poisons which kill by entering their stomachs. Sucking insects, which siphon off the vital plant juices, are best handled by chemicals which paralyze and smother on contact.

Arsenate of lead is the best known of the stomach poisons, and combinations of pyrethrum and rotenone are effective on the sucking types. DDT and others of the newly developed chemicals knock off both kinds.

FOR ANY EFFECTIVE results in the bug battle, the basic essentials would consist first of a dormant spray—a miscible oil to be applied to fruit trees, lilacs and other susceptible ornamental trees and shrubs a couple of weeks before the buds begin to burst. This is effective against any of the scale diseases and catches pests which winter over when they are most vulnerable.

There also should be nicotine sulfate, for aphid control; a rotenone pyrethrum preparation, and Bordeaux mixture for fungus growths. For those who grow gladioli, or anything else attracting thrips, the bulbs may be treated with DDT before planting. Red spider, which apparently thrives on DDT, are best controlled with nicotine, rotenone or sulphur.

Most gardeners use both a spray gun and a duster for applying the chemicals. The dust should be applied when the plants are dewy or wet so the powder will stick. In any event, pay more attention to getting the control materials on the under side of the leaves than on the tops, for it is underneath where most of the enemies hide out.

Slugs and snails respond best to poison bait, but be sure to renew it after a rain. Japanese beetles are discouraged if the ground is infiltrated with a milky spore preparation—a sort of special anti-beetle germ warfare. The alternatives are DDT and handpicking them from the best blooms every morning when they are dull and slip unprotesting into a mason jar half-filled with water and a couple of teaspoonsful of kerosene or motor oil.

The River Jordan flows into the Dead Sea.

Winegardner Will Return To Law Practise

Washington C. H. Man
To Leave Permanent
Civil Defense Job

Attorney Reed M. Winegardner has been granted a change in status from his post as acting regional director of the federal Civil Defense Administration's regional office at Avon Lake, Ohio.

He has been named as consultant, effective June 15. He is reported to have requested this change in order to return to active management of his law office in Washington, D. C.

Winegardner had practiced law for more than 30 years prior to his federal appointment as acting regional director of the Civil Defense Administration in this district covering the three states of Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky. He has been identified with the FCDA since July 1951.

He opened the office for this organization in the federal building in Cleveland in September 1951. The office was later moved to its present location at Avon Lake.

In announcing his change in positions with FCDA, Winegardner stated that he had considered it a privilege to have had the opportunity to serve in the development of the Civil Defense Administration in this region and that he was proud of the progress made in this three state district.

Commenting further, he said, "Although I will no longer be actively engaged in Civil Defense, at the federal level, I will lend my support to the program wherever possible. My personal witnessing of the atomic bomb explosion at Yucca Flats, Nevada, on April 22, makes me more than ever conscious of the danger and deadliness of this new destructive force. A strong Civil Defense program is the best protection. It needs the support of every American."

Winegardner, a graduate of the College of Law at Ohio Northern University, served as field supervisor for Ohio's Sales Tax Section from 1935 to 1937, and during the next two years as Assistant Attorney General of Ohio. He also served as a field director for the American Red Cross, in Europe, during 1945.

He is president of the Fayette County Bar Association and is an active member of the Professional Economics Committee of the Ohio State Bar Association. He is also a member of the Commercial Law League of America.

Winegardner has agreed to FCDA's request to continue as a consultant on a part-time basis until September 15.

Council Meeting

that he should be careful that he did not disqualify himself from presiding in the case.

Councilman Floyd Tracey moved that a council employ a special prosecutor and after further discussion the motion carried.

Judge Brubaker said he had spoken to Richard Rankin about the matter, but had not appointed him.

THE MATTER of arranging to keep the overflow of city prisoners in the county jail was taken up and the safety-service committee is to investigate.

L. P. Sharpe, vice president of the Ohio Water Service Co., O. D. Farquhar, superintendent of the plant here, and Attorney Troy T. Junk were present in connection with proposed changes in water main extensions which were submitted to council recently.

Junk spoke regarding the proposed ordinance and said it was for the benefit of the city as well as the water company.

A clause in the original proposal regarding the extension not exceeding 50 feet at no cost to the property owner, was changed to 70 feet. A list of 19 streets was read where service extensions are planned.

Sharpe took an active part in the discussion, which continued informally with councilmen asking various questions, for upward of one hour.

It was finally agreed that council would take the matter up as a committee at a special meeting next Wednesday night, and officials of the company said they would be present.

Both sides expressed belief that a final draft of the proposed ordinance could be made without difficulty.

DECISION was reached to allow the traffic light at North Fayette and Paint Street remain where it is and a resolution to move it to Washington Avenue and McElwain Street was rescinded.

It was voted to place a new school light on Washington Avenue at McElwain Street by September 1.

Two of the councilmen spoke of the large number of traffic lights already in use here compared with many other cities.

Congestion about the alley west of the Kroger Building came up for further discussion.

City Manager Hill said he would take the problem up with the Kroger manager and see what could be worked out.

After the safety-service committee recommended adoption of the ordinance providing no parking on the east side of North Street from Court Street to the north corporation line "because we have no choice," council adopted the ordinance.

Application of Richard R. Willis to tap the Juniper Street sewer, was granted.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the city manager to advertise for bids for five new trucks, with a view to purchasing at least one in the near future.

A resolution declaring it necessary to build a sewer on Main Street between Ohio Avenue and Chestnut Streets, and one on Vine Street from Fifth to Sixth Streets was adopted.

The cost, about $3300, will be paid for by special assessments, with cost of about $300 to the city.

AN ORDINANCE to appropriate $100 from the general fund for the blood test fund of the municipal court was passed.

A resolution accepting the bid of Carl Merritt to pay $150 for the house on the city park on Millikan Avenue and remove it was passed. The money is to be turned over to the recreation commission.

A report on the application of William Summers for payment for destruction by the street crew of trees on property he had leased from the B & O Railroad was made by City Manager Hill.

It was stated that the trees were threatening to clog a sewer, and a B & O official gave permission to cut them.

However, the lease on $1 per year basis, was cancelled by the B & O sometime ago, the report shows. No action was taken.

The report of the municipal court for the month of May was read: Total receipts were $4,594.25 for the month, with disbursements the same.

Broken down the report showed collections in city fines $2,766.30; state patrol cases $533.30; city case costs $428.45; state case costs $23.50; sheriff's costs $4.40; traffic tickets $193; cash bond $50 and state conservation case fines $60.

Disbursement: paid to city treasury $3,591.10; county treasurer $355.45; sheriff $4.40; city on state, patrol cases $266.65; Cash bond $50; conservation commission, $60.

STATE TAKES HAND
HAMILTON—The state has sent three men into Butler County to aid local authorities in stamping out an epidemic of rabies. Treatment for rabies is costing taxpayers $1,000 weekly.

Of Heart Ailment

Palmer Curtis Peck, 57, died at 10 P. M. Wednesday in Memorial Hospital here following a heart attack Saturday evening at his home in Clarksburg. He was taken to the hospital Sunday in what was regarded as a critical condition.

He was a native of the Clarksburg community and, with the exception of 11 years when he taught school in Pickaway and Ross Counties, spent his entire life there as a farmer.

will spend $180 million before they head for home.

Colorado officials, who count the tourist trade as a top industry, look for 3½ million visitors who'll spend $247½ million.

Montana is hopeful of attaining last year's tourist figures—2½ million visitors who spent close to $75 million.

More than 500,000—nearly equal the state's population—visited Glacier National Park near the Canadian border in 1951.

Utah is counting on 3½ million tourists and a gross income of $80 million, both ahead of last year. Summer travel in Arizona should bring 1½ million visitors who'll spend $30 million, the state university's Business Research Bureau estimates.

into wage-price controls legislation. They said they would propose it again later in a separate bill.

The seizure question was raised in the House Banking Committee by Rep. Bolling (D-Mo.) who proposed it as an amendment to legislation extending the economic controls law.

Bolling's amendment was a duplicate of that offered in the Senate Tuesday by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) and rejected by that body.

Members reported nine Democrats and one Republican supported the seizure move in the House committee. Five Democrats and 10 Republicans were against it. One Democrat voted present and one Republican was absent.

The House group is working on its own version of a new wage-price controls law to replace the present one which expires June 30. The law allows the government to seek a court order, good for 80 days, against a strike which imperils the national welfare.

THE PRESIDENT has told Congress "this would be grossly unfair," but he was reported ready to comply if the House also tells him Taft-Hartley is its answer to the strike.

Truman contends that the Taft-Hartley Act's 80-day strike ban would only defer pay raises he says the workers deserve, and there is no guarantee the workers would obey it.

When steel industry negotiations collapsed last Monday night, both industry and union agreed to reopen enough plants to produce the steel needed for the Korean fighting. Truman told Congress this might help some, but wouldn't satisfy all defense needs.

A 17-man group, including eight government officials, was meeting with John R. Steelman, Truman's assistant, to work out details of the steel-for-Korea plan.

Secretary of Defense Lovett and Defense Production Administrator Henry Fowler led the government group. Industry was represented by vice presidents of five major steel companies, and the CIO Steelworkers union by three aides.

Water Is Short

SALEM, June 12 — (AP)—Salem Water Superintendent B. V. Bevier says the water level in the reservoir is down so much fire protection for the city of 15,000 is endangered. The city asked industrial plants to cut water consumption 25 per cent, banned lawn sprinkling and car washing.

Forests are found more than 100 miles beyond the Arctic Circle.
